

MODERN SLAVERY ACT STATEMENT

Anti-Slavery Statement

This statement made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, sets out the approach taken by SEW-EURODRIVE Ltd. to understand all potential modern slavery risks. related to its business, and the actions undertaken to mitigate any such risks during the financial year ending 31 st Dec 2023.

SEW-EURODRIVE Ltd. Is a provider of a range of power transmissions products. The SEW EURODRIVE group has over 21,000 employees worldwide and is headquartered in Germany. Our supply chains consist of global suppliers of engineering products, services and consultancy.

The Board of the SEW-EURODRIVE is committed to delivering high standards of corporate governance and a key element of this is managing the Group in a socially responsible way. The Group aims to employ the highest ethical and professional standards and always to comply with all local laws and regulations applicable to our business; it follows that SEW-EURODRIVE Ltd. Is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities and its supply chains. This commitment is emphasised in our company policies. SEW-EURODRIVE Ltd. also expects the same high standards which we set for ourselves from those in our supply chain.

Due to the nature of our business and our approach to governance, we assess that there is very low risk of slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains. However we aim to periodically review the effectiveness of the relevant policies and procedures that we have in place. We do not have key performance indicators in relation to slavery or human trafficking as any instance would be expected to be a breach of law, our supplier standards and / or our company policies.
